Art Exhibits Highlight Marblehead Festival of Arts

Marblehead MA (June 5, 2013) – The Marblehead Festival of Arts will host its 48th annual Arts Festival in downtown Marblehead from July 3 – July 7.. This North Shore favorite is home to fine arts exhibits, including Crafts, Drawing, Painting, Printmaking, Photography, Mixed Media and Sculpture, as well as special exhibits featuring Youth Art, Student Art and Senior Art. The Festival also sponsors plein- air painting, known as Painting-the-Town.

Artists from all over Essex County participate in the many types of art, which take place at various venues around town. Exhibits, with free admission, are open Thursday, July 4th, 10 am to 5 pm; Friday, July 5, 10am to 5pm; Saturday, July 6, 10am to 5pm and Sunday, July 7, 10am to 5 pm.

Awards Night, which officially opens the Festival, will be held Wednesday evening, July 3, outside Abbot Hall, 188 Washington Street. The public is invited to share in this celebration, from 5:30pm to 6:30pm, to recognize the artists who created outstanding original works in all of the juried categories as well as some of the donors who make the Festival possible.

Art exhibits will then be open, from 6:45 to 8:00 pm, at Abbot Hall, St Michael's Church, 139 Washington Street (new home for photography), Unitarian Universalist Church and Old North Church. For the first time this Year we offer a "FESTIVAL EVE" with a kickoff concert and Film Festival at Crocker Park on Wednesday evening. Opening act begins at 6:00pm and will be followed by the Film Festival at 9:00pm.

Housed at Abbot Hall are Crafts, Drawing, Painting and Printmaking, all juried exhibits. Crafts features handcrafts of a traditional or contemporary nature. Drawing utilizes charcoal, conte crayon, pencil, pen and ink and other drawing materials. Painting is done in oil, acrylic and watercolor. Printmaking features etching, engraving, drypoint, silkscreen, lithography, monoprint, woodcut engraving and other accepted forms of the art.

St. Michael's Church, 26 Pleasant Street, is home to Mixed Media and Sculpture, both juried exhibits. Mixed Media is artwork in two or more traditional or nontraditional media in a single composition.. Sculpture is art which has been cut, carved, chiseled, cast, welded or molded in any medium into a three dimensional form.

Photography is found at 139 Washington Street. It is a juried exhibit of black-and-white and color photographs.

The Unitarian Universalist Church, 28 Mugford Street, houses Senior Art, a non-juried exhibit of original work by persons 60 years of age and older. Also at the church is the Logo Exhibit, featuring this year's winning logo, the finalists and semi-finalists, and logos from past years; Writers' World, with a collection of juried short fiction, essays, and poetry; and the Literary Arts Café.

Old North Church, 35 Washington Street, has the non-juried Student Art and Youth Art Exhibits. Student Art, representing the work of students in grades 5-12, includes calligraphy, crafts, drawing, mixed media, painting, photography, printmaking and sculpture. Youth Art features works by students in preschool through grade 4, and includes crafts, drawing, painting, photography, printmaking and sculpture.

The King Hooper Mansion, 8 Hooper Street, is home of the Marblehead Arts Association (MAA) and houses the Painting-the-Town Exhibit and the MAA July Member Exhibit. Painting-the-Town, or plein air painting, features the work of artists who will have painted outdoors on Thursday, July 4th. They will create fresh works, often done rapidly, that capture the essence of a scene with a unique charm, unlike the more careful studies produced in a studio.

Please note that much of the art is for sale. Purchasing a work benefits both the artist and the Festival. Prices are listed in the printed Festival Program, available at all exhibit locations.

About Marblehead Festival of Arts (MFoA)

Founded in 1962, the Marblehead Festival of Arts has a rich history in producing a premier summer arts festival that has become a unique forum for artistic expression. Traditionally held each year over the July 4th holiday, the Marblehead Festival of Arts hosts a wide range of art exhibits (including painting, sculpture, photography and drawing), outdoor music concerts overlooking Marblehead Harbor, the Film Festival, Writers' World, the Street Festival, the Children's Festival, Artisans' Marketplace and many other cultural activities designed to provide a fun and enriching experience for the entire family.

The Marblehead Festival of Arts is run by an all-volunteer organization comprised of more than 40 committees and involving several hundred volunteers. It operates year-round and relies solely on donations to fund its operations. Individuals, families and businesses may become Festival Sponsors by making a tax-deductible contribution. For additional information on MFoA, a calendar of events, volunteer opportunities and sponsorship, please visit www.MarbleheadFestival.org.
